

RECEIVED

August 26-31, 1974

GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, On August 26, 1920, the Nineteenth Amendment, giving women the right to vote, was certified as part of our Constitution. Women across the Nation will celebrate that momentous event during the week of August 26, which has been designated as Women's Week; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting, at this time, that we give recognition to the contributions women have made to the quality of American life and to the progress of our great Nation. We must, further, be mindful of the need to eliminate remaining vestiges of discrimination which stand in the way of complete equality of women:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, call upon all citizens to join in observing the week of August 26-31, 1974, as

WOMEN'S WEEK

and to pay tribute to the achievements of the Nation's women as workers, as homemakers, as public servants, and as concerned citizens. I further urge all citizens to lend their support to those activities and programs that will advance the economic, civil, and political status of women.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota,
in Pierre, the Capital City, this 26th day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Four

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
